Course Objective and Prerequisite

Objective: After finishing this tutorial the reader will be able to

- Read (with Tajweed Rules) the Noble Quran written in Uthmani Script avoiding major mistakes.

Prerequisite: Readers should know the basic shape and pronunciation of Arabic Letters. Those who have no such background may visit Here or similar .

The readers who are already familiar with different forms of Arabic Letters may skip Introduction to Arabic Letters part.

 Symbol for listening. For listening purpose set Al-Husary as reciter to observe each letter and word carefully.

Arabic Scripts: 2 types

There are basically two scripts used for the Noble Quran as such:

1. Uthmani Script
2. IndoPak or Majidi Script

This tutorial aims at Uthmani Script. And Uthmani script is generally recommended. Some reasons:

- It is the default internationally accepted standard
- It is easy to apply Tajweed Rules in this script

Arabic Scripts: Examples

Uthmani Script

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ (١)

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ (٢) الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ (٣) مَلِكِ يَوْمِ الدِّينِ (٤) إِيَّاكَ نَعْبُدُ وَإِيَّاكَ نَسْتَعِينُ (٥) اهْدِنَا الصِّرَاطَ

الْمُسْتَقِيمَ (٦) صِرَاطَ الَّذِينَ أَنْعَمْتَ عَلَيْهِمْ غَيْرِ الْمَغْضُوبِ عَلَيْهِمْ وَلَا الضَّالِّينَ (٧)

IndoPak Script

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿١﴾ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ ﴿٢﴾ مَلِكِ يَوْمِ الدِّينِ ﴿٣﴾ إِيَّاكَ نَعْبُدُ وَإِيَّاكَ نَسْتَعِينُ ﴿٤﴾ اهْدِنَا الصِّرَاطَ

الْمُسْتَقِيمَ ﴿٥﴾ صِرَاطَ الَّذِينَ أَنْعَمْتَ عَلَيْهِمْ ﴿٦﴾ غَيْرِ الْمَغْضُوبِ عَلَيْهِمْ وَلَا الضَّالِّينَ ﴿٧﴾

Arabic Letters: 28/29 letters

The Arabic Alphabet

الحروف العربية

- There are 28/29 letters in Arabic Language
- Letters Alif: ا and Hamza ء are 2 letters here shown as a single letter totaling 28 in count.

ث تا	ت تا	ب با	أ ألف
د دال	خ خا	ح حا	ج جيم
س سين	ز زاي	ر را	ذ ذال
ط طا	ض ضاد	ص صاد	ش شين

Arabic Letters: 28/29 letters

- Red Marked letters are Heavy Letters (will be discussed soon.)
- There is a duel letter pronounced as Tamurbata written as ة (not listed here)
 - ✓ If you stop at ة then read as soft ha ه
 - ✓ If you continue then read as ت

ف فا	غ غين	ع عين	ظ ظا
م ميم	ل لام	ك كاف	ق قاف
ي يا	و واو	ه ها	ن نون

Basic Terms: Short Vowels

- Short Vowels حَرَكَات: There are 3 basic sounds in Arabic Language, English Equivalently they are 'a' , 'e' and 'u'. In Arabic they are called namely, Fat-hah, Kasrah and Dammah.

1. Fat-hah 'a' sound — ' ba
2. Kasrah 'e' sound — be
3. Dammah 'u' sound — boo

Basic Terms: Sakin

- That is a letter with no movement on it Stationary. Stop there.
- A Saakinah letter is always preceded by a letter with a Harakah (short vowels) on it. (As in Example below م with Fat-ha ء on them)
- It can be written in 3 different ways:

Basic Terms: Shaddah (Jajam)

- It is used to pronounce 2 identical/similar letters (back-to-back).
- Symbol used ّ
- How to read? First use the sakin and then use the short vowel on it.
- Example:

إِبَّ ← إِبَّ + بَ

إِِبَّ ← إِبَّ + بِ

إِِبُّ ← إِبَّ + بُ

Basic Terms:At-Tanween (Double Vowel)

- It is equivalent to adding a ُ sakin at the end.
- For 3 short vowels there are 3 corresponding Tanween or Double Vowels termed Fatah-tain, Kasrah-tain and Dammah-tain.
- Note: For Fatah-tain: An Extra Alif (ا) should appear, but will not be pronounced. Except for ة (sometimes and ء), (no extra ا is needed with Fatah-tain specially for ة).
- They are written either in (1) Standard Format or (2) Slanted Format or (3) م format. (Later their difference will be explained)

At-Tanween (Double Vowel): Example

Example:

Extra Alif(1) with Fathatain

تُرَبَّأُ	سَبْعَا	خَلَقَا
خَوْفٌ	عَدَنٍ	ذَرَّةٍ
حَامِيَةٌ	خَشِيعَةٌ	وَاجِفَةٌ

Next letter is Ba, so an sound becomes am sound.

At-Tanween (Double Vowel): More Example

More Example:

The Arabic letters with Tanween

Tanween Dhammah	Tanween Kasrah	Tanween Fat-hah	The letter	Tanween Dhammah	Tanween Kasrah	Tanween Fat-hah	The letter
ب ^{٢٩}	ب _ٓ	بَا ^{٣٠}	ب	ع ^{٢٩}	ع _ٓ	عَا ^(١١)	أ
ة ^{٢٩}	ة _ٓ	ةَا ^(١٢)	ة	ت ^{٢٩}	ت _ٓ	تَا	ت
ج ^{٢٩}	ج _ٓ	جَا	ج	ث ^{٢٩}	ث _ٓ	ثَا	ث

¹¹ In most words in Al-Quran the Hamza (ء) is written with Tanween Fath-hah without Alif after it.

¹² Taa' Marbuta (ة) does not come with Alif, if it has Tanween Fat-hah.

Classification of Letters (overlapping)

- Heavy and Light Letters:

1. Heavy (Takheem) Letters: 7 letters (ط ظ ص ض خ غ ق) are always heavy, while 2 letters (ج ل) are conditionally heavy which will be discussed later.

Trick: Use a fathah on it and pronounce it taking air inside your mount (inhale). Your face will have no smiling circle while pronouncing it. Hence we call them Angry Letter.

Formally back of the tongue is raised to the upper roof of mouth.

2. Light (Tarqeeq) Letters: Remaining letters are light.

Trick: Add a fathah on it and pronounce it with a smile on your face and exhaling air from the mouth. Hence we can call them Smiling Letters

Classification of Letters (overlapping)

- Heavy and Light Letters: Sample and Tip

Heavy Letters:
(Sample)

ح

~~آ~~

ا✓ (use ^{Tip} ا, Not آ)

ص

~~ع~~

Light Letters:

ك

(use ^{Tip} ك)

Classification of Letters (overlapping)

- Echo Letters: 5 letters are called echo letters as they echo or vibrate when stopped, they are ق ط ج د ب

[details will be covered later]

Next Slide will start from here from IntroPartOld

- Throat Letters (TL):¹ 6 letters are pronounced from the throat. They are equally divided into 3 parts such as (a) Bottom (b) Middle and (c) Top.

خ غ	ح ع	ه س

Table 1: 6 Throat Letters (TL)

¹ These letters will be used as reference for some rules specially in nun sakin. Ideally you need to remember them, but practically you don't to memorize them in Uthmani Script.

Connected Forms of Letters

Arabic Letters not always written in full form, they have short forms (also called connected form). Based on connection to the next letter they are 2 types¹

1. Orphan Letters. It does not connect to its next letter.
2. Non Orphan Letters. It is connected to its next letter.

¹You do not need to memorize this classification. But you should be familiar with their connected forms

Long Vowels

Its length is twice the length, i.e. 2x of a short vowel.

Examples of Long Vowels

1. ف → فَا (addition of an extra ا , without sakin on it¹.)

¹Alif is only used as long vowel whereas other 2 can be used as both

2. ي (Kasra-Yea)
3. و (Dammah-oaw)

Long Vowels Properties

1. Its length is twice of normal length (i.e. 2x).
2. No sakin on long vowels
3. They are written in different ways (both full form and short form) (i.e. Next Slide)

Long Vowels (2x long): How they are written

Long Vowel	Example: Full Form	Example: Short Form	Note
ا	عَذَابٌ	ذَلِكَ	Called Dagger Alif (looks like a dagger!!) (very small sized ا)
ي	الَّذِينَ	وَرَسُولِهِ	It looks quite different
و	يَعْلَمُونَ	إِنَّهُ	Looks like a smaller و

Note: The letter Hamza ء with a Alif ا Long Vowel is sometimes written as آ

Simply: آ = ءا (2x long)

2 Diphthong Sounds

Diphthong Definition

Diphthongs in Arabic are vowel sounds consisting of two parts, a short vowel (here Fat-ha) and a consonant (here و and ي), the consonant must have a sakin on it. They are ay and aw. Its length will be 2x like long vowel.

- Pattern for Diphthong:

يَ pronounced as "aay" اَوْ pronounced as "aa0"

- It will be 2x long and there will be explicit sakin on both و and ي
- Example:

عَلَيْهِمْ

نَوْمٌ

Special Letter Tamurbata

- Tamurbata is a dual letter is express by: ة

How to read:

- If you stop, read as ه (soft ha) and put a ◌ْ (sakin) on it.

Example: غِشَاوَةٌ (if you stop) → غِشَاوَةٌ

- If you continue, then read as ت

Example: غِشَاوَةٌ (if you continue) → غِشَاوَتْ

Example of ة

خَتَمَ اللَّهُ عَلَى قُلُوبِهِمْ وَعَلَى سَمْعِهِمْ وَعَلَى أَبْصَرِهِمْ غِشْلَوَةٌ وَلَهُمْ عَذَابٌ
عَظِيمٌ ٧

Special Letters: Alif Maksura (painted Alif)

Recall the usage of Alif as follows:

- Alif | can not carry any short vowels on it. Wrong to write آ in Uthmani Script.
- ✓ Alif | is used only as long vowel. Example: عَالَمِينَ
- ✓ Extra Alif | is used with Fat-ha-tain (ة). Example: جُرُزًا

So, the last two cases are the correct usage of Alif |. So, the basic principle is: sometimes ي in place of Alif | is used for the above 2 cases. Actually they are not ي, they are Alif |. Sometimes, a dagger alif may appear, Even without dagger alif it is Alif |

Note: dots may not appear for ي.

Example with Dagger Alif as part of Long Vowel (Read as Alif)

إِلَّا تَذْكِرَةً لِّمَن يَخْشَى (٣)

- Here يَخْشَى → يَخْشَا

20:3

Example without Dagger Alif part of Long Vowel (Read as Alif)

تَنْزِيلًا مِّمَّنْ خَلَقَ الْأَرْضَ وَالسَّمَوَاتِ الْعُلَى (٤)

- Here, عُلَى → عَلَا

20:4

Special Letters: Alif Maksura (painted Alif) (Cont.)

Example with Fat-ha-tain (Read as Alif)

- Here, هُدًى → هُدَا → هُدَا (because of stopping rule)

20:10

Special Letters: و as ا

Written as و

Rules:

- و followed by ة ⇒ They together works as a single letter. Read as Alif ا as part of long vowel.
- و followed by Other Letters ⇒ They are treated as two separate letters. Read as actual و followed by Alif ا

Special Letter: و as as ا (Example)

Example: as ا when next letter is ة

أَعْلَمُوا أَنَّمَا الْحَيَاةُ الدُّنْيَا لَعِبٌ

- Here, الْحَيَاةُ → الْحَيَاةُ

57:20 (partial)

Special Letters: و (with long vowel) as NOT أَ (Example Cont.)

Example: as و and ا when next letter is NOT ة

فِي الْأَمْوَالِ وَالْأَوْلَادِ^ط

- Here, أَمْوَالِ → أَمْوَالِ

57:20 (Partial)

Hamza: 2 Types

1. Hamzatul Qat (Normal Hamza) : Standard form ء (Other forms exist)
2. Hamzatul Wasl: Standard form ا̣ (No other form exists)

Hamzatul Qat: Properties

1. It can be written in many forms and it can carry any short or long vowel or sakin

ﻻ	لَا	ئ	ؤ	إ	أ	ء

Table 2: Hamzatul Qat Different Forms

2. Hamzatul Qaat with a sakin on it, then the previous short vowel length is .5x (i.e. shortened).
3. There is a difference between a Hamzatul Qaat on ﻻ and a Hamza Alif on أ
Although they look similar.

Hamzatul Qaat :Properties Explained

- Property 1: It can be written in many forms and it can carry any short or long vowel or sakin

- Property 2: Hamzatul Qaat with a sakin on it then shorten (.5x) it.

- Rule 3: Difference in ق with a Fatha on it.

Hamzatul Wasl

- Main Property: It can not carry any short or long vowel or sakin on it, so, special rules are needed to pronounce it (when it is at the beginning or even in the middle which will be explained soon). It can be written in one form only. Symbol for Hamzatul Wasl اِ

Example: We can not write like:

اِ or اِ

Hamzatul Wasl ؤ

Hamzatul Wasl ؤ can be placed:

1. At the Beginning: A set of rules are needed.
2. In the Middle: It has 2 cases
 - (a) The previous letter has short vowel/long vowel (not double vowel or Tanween). The rule is simple, just ignore it and read using previous letter to its next one.
 - (b) Special Case: Previous letter has a tanween (double vowel)

Rule 1: أ at the beginning of an separately readable section.

It can be used for 3 Cases:

- (a) As the Definite Article "the" أ
- (b) ~~As Irregular Verb~~
- (c) As Imperative Verb

Case (i) and (iii) will be explained) here since Case (ii) is not very useful for general readers.

Rule 1 (a): أ as Definite Article "the" أل

- Pattern: If you find a pattern of أل, i.e. a ل after أ

Rule: Then Read by adding a Fat-ha ("a" sound) on it. It really does not matter if that ل is pronounced or not, which depends on if the letter of a sun or moon letter.

Example 1:

Rule 1 (a): أ as Definite Article "the" آل

- Pattern: If you find a pattern of آل, i.e. a ل after أ

Rule: Then Read by adding a Fat-ha ("a" sound) on it. It really does not matter if that ل is pronounced or not, which depends on if the letter of a sun or moon letter.

Example 1:

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ

Rule 1 (a): أ as Definite Article "the" آل

- Pattern: If you find a pattern of آل, i.e. a ل after أ

Rule: Then Read by adding a Fat-ha ("a" sound) on it. It really does not matter if that ل is pronounced or not, which depends on if the letter of a sun or moon letter.

Example 1:

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ = آل
